Farmers and Finance

On World and Down, in Fen and Shire, people and methods may change, but the land and its products remain the first of man's responsibilities. The horse team has given way to the noisy tractor, the swish of the scythe to the rattling of the binder, the purr of the thrashing drum to the roar of the combine, and with each change new problems confront the farmer. Sound financial aid is essential to the agriculturist. In the past, this service was rendered by the private country banker, who knew his customers, their land, and local conditions. The bank of the present day, with, in many instances, the country banker's descendants still in local control, is in a position to carry on this tradition of service and at the same time to provide modern facilities for all the banking needs of the farmer.

Will you do something for them?

Wherever the men and women of the Services may be, in peace and in war alike, there also will you find a NAAFI canteen, bringing them refreshment, relaxation and the many small comforts without which their lives would be very much harder. But, only if more women join NAAFI will the Forces enjoy the kind of canteen service which is their right. There is a particularly urgent need for management help for long after the war. Full details about pay and conditions of service can be obtained from:

NAAFI Group Office, 116 High Street, Hythe

Serve with NAAFI

The address and routine applications only from women over 41, or from a woman (6) who has risen with her child or her under the age of 14, or has a Ministry of Defence permit to allow her to work.

Individual Enquiries. All other applications must apply at local Employment Exchanges.

Are you a martyr?

To INDIGESTION?

A couple of RENNIES

Will settle the question

Why be a martyr to stomach pain, when you can get quick relief with Digestant Rennie? They're tablets, separately wrapped so you can carry them home. No water or spoon needed. You just stick them like sweets, one after the other. You'll be prepared, no matter where you are when the pain begins. It comes of a minute that neutralises the excess acid in your stomach and eases discomfort. It's high time you saw your doctor about it.

WASHING MY Silk Stockings

SPRIM removes dirt gently without rubbing, lessens risk of ladders, preserves shape and texture of stockings and adds wealth to their wear.

CLEANING MY Carpets

SPRIM brings carpets and upholstery up like new when used neat. Rub a small area with a circular motion using a stiff brush and wipe off with a clean damp cloth. Reverses colours remarkably.

AND OF COURSE ON Washday

SPRIM makes the dirt simply roll off of grimy clothes! The blue in SPRIM makes whites whiter and colours brighter—and SPRIM is delightful to use!

It must always be AMMONIA

It's the best for your hair in shampooing. It's the best for your skin in face cream. It's the best for your clothes in stain remover. It's the best for your household in general.

"PLEASE WHEN CAN CHIVERS JELLIES?"

Sorry Johnny, not just yet. We'd like to say "now" because hundreds of letters tell how much CHIVERS JELLIES are being missed by children. As soon as ever we are allowed to make them again we'll let you know—and then, with these lovely Jellies, parties will become real parties once more.

IT SINKS IN THROUGH THE SKIN TO CONQUER BAD LEG TROUBLE

Bad legs often begin in a small way. A chronic lymphatic condition, perhaps, but the more places permitted to become really painful. Lots of people suffer from this—and even give up hope of recovery. But how more in the past 40 years have happily recovered by the use of GERMOLINE, which is what you really need if you have a bad leg. Take the case of Mrs. E. H. of Sunderland. She says: "I have had an ulcer on my leg for 20 years. One day a supply came—in the wartime—(4/4 & 3/6). For two weeks it was on my leg. It healed in a few days. It healed in a few days."

Use the Healing Hand of GERMOLINE

It soothes at a touch—heals your skin clean!
