

LEOPOLD WILL NOT GIVE UP HIS THRONE

Still in Salzburg, he assumes 'full powers'

FOOD NEWS

There'll be fewer queues—WOOLTON

Potatoes on way to north—LLEWELLIN

OOD news was given last night by the Minister of Food and the ex-Minister, Mr. Woolton, in the course of his election broadcast, explaining present shortages of food.

Llewellyn promised the East, which he described as most open, an early supply of and Woolton said:

This was the worst time

year for food supplies, but the year's stocks of potatoes and vegetables are present seasonal trouble and the food and more assistants are mobilised into the shops there'll be no prospectus are already better than any other country and the work of this Government to make controls unnecessary and to bring about a situation no longer central.

POTATOES ON WAY

COLONEL LLEWELLIN

said but for the May frosts there have been no gap in the supply.

The week promises to be better than last. The worst spots now are Newcastle, Cumberland and Derbyshire, where 1,000 tons of old potatoes from Northern Ireland, trucks will be left today for Leeds and another to London. The long distance journey has been arranged with the Home Office

and the Home Army

and announced that during watering establishments will be closed and the stocks of man to move the work up to the frontiers who were on duty on Sunday

had issued a general order to call on the King to abdicate.

SOVIET THREAT

"Soviet," had told me," he said, "that the coming Red Army offensive might lead to the smashing up of Poland and the Polish government."

This might threaten the independence of Poland."

He said that the struggle against the Germans was to be carried on until the moment when the Polish government was to give the independence to Poland."

It is ordered that the Home Army should dissolve but preserve its

form and aims remained.

ANTI-SOVIET BLOC

Asked which countries were expected to join the proposed anti-Soviet bloc, he said:

Colonial admitted he ordered the machinery to be used against the Red Army.

In London, in June, 1944,

Colonial, Prime Minister of the Labour Government, and his colleague in Poland, said he had instructions to try to take the government's resignation if it could be obtained by the Home Army.

It is ordered that the Home Army

form and aims remained.

POSSIBILITY

of Japanese withdrawal from the Singapore area before they are cut off again suggested by reports of unusually heavy traffic towards Bangkok, in Indo-China.

At present, the Malayan front has been cut several times by Liberators and another serious threat to the Malayan front is the heavy attack on the Tuk Tuk front.

There is now a real threat to the British officer said.

BORNEO LANDING

PACIFIC front:

RAIDING—Over 400 Supermarines carried out another firebombing raid against industrial targets in Honson and Kyushu.

INDIA-ASIAN

troops

new unoccupied

lands in the area, east of Luban Island have reached the coast of Tuk Tuk and are striking at the important oilfield of oil.

TAKAHAN

—Australian and

Dutch troops have overcome most of the remaining enemy strong points in Southern Sumatra and are now attacking the important oilfield of Takaham.

KILLED IN COLLISION

When some soldiers were moving in their vehicles along a road between Bambang and Bantul, in Central Java, a truck driven by

Frederick

was killed by a motorcycle.

CONVERTED "FORTS"

Under the "two freedoms" agreement reached at the Chicago conference, the C.M.I. on commanded the Guards Armoured

Regiment, Duke of Northumberland was sent to Scandinavia and going to Scotland.
