

Section E. First Aid 5 marks. (Answer any 5 questions).

1. What is the difference between treatment of injuries to the stomach, and injuries to the liver, spleen, pancreas and intestines?
2. How would you know a case of arterial haemorrhage.
3. If part of a limb was blown off or the wound was lacerated, but there was not much bleeding, how would you act.
4. What are the degrees of insensibility.
5. What is the object of First Aid treatment of fractures.
6. State the general rules of treatment of a wound accompanied by venous haemorrhage.

Section F. Chemical Warfare 5 marks. (Answer any 5 questions).

1. If your skin has become contaminated with liquid gas, and reddening has set in, would it be of any use to rub anti gas ointment into the affected part.
2. If you were ordered to handle any contaminated articles, without gloves, what would be your first action.
3. If your skin is contaminated with liquid, could bleach paste be used as a substitute for anti gas ointment.
4. For what purpose is the felt pad on your eyeshields.
5. In which position should the haversack flap be unfastened.
6. How can ointment be used to protect a man against the effects of blister gas vapour.

Section G. O.B.s 5 marks. (Answer any 5 questions).

1. Name six articles of personal kit which will be required in O.B.
2. How and where would you keep operational requirements that are subject to deterioration through dampness.
3. What provisions would you make to avoid boredom?
4. How would you use your sterilizing set. (i.e. sequence).
5. What are the essential requirements of your kitchen.
Give four rules which must be strictly adhered to in O.B.

Section H. General Knowledge 10 marks. (All questions to be answered).

1. If captured by the enemy, what information do you give.
2. Give badges of rank of (a) Brigadier in British Army,
(b) Group Captain in R.A.F.
3. Name four 4-engined Allied bombers in service.
4. Names of Company Commanders of A. B. C. and D. Companies respectively of Admiralty H.G. Battalion.
5. Telephone numbers of I.O. and G.C. (private).
6. Quote numbers of (a) Sten Gun (b) One Springfield, in your patrol.
7. How many 77 grenades in each container.
8. How many C.E. primers in a standard tube packing.
9. Give colours of medal ribbons of the Military Cross and the Africa Star.
10. Where are Augsburg, Pilsen, Lwow and Split.